JOURNEY TO ONENESS - THE LONG ROAD HOME

Spiritual Astrology by Marlis

In a metaphysical sense, evolution is the process of spiritualization of matter, as a development and progression back to the source. (Edgar Cayce)

We are spiritual beings who have moved away from the awareness of Universal Oneness and became entangled in matter. The involution into matter was a bad decision resulting in a long and arduous evolution back to our spiritual home. We easily moved from the very fine vibration of Spirit into the very dense vibration of Matter. The way back is much more difficult.

Astrology provides the answer for those who seek to know their purpose for being here on Earth and it is the same for everyone - we are trying to find our way home!

Our Universe (solar system) was created to facilitate the spiritual evolution of man. There are eight dimensions of consciousness symbolized by the planets, and we must achieve perfection in each to acquire the correct vibration to return to source..

Between Earth lives we sojourn in the environments of the planets as stages of soul development, not in the physical of course, but in a mental/astral body suitable to the environment represented. What we learn during sojourns "mentally" is then tested during Earth lives in the physical.

Being able to incarnate on to the Earth plane is a special opportunity to gain awareness of the consequences of our thoughts, choices and actions. It is through activities (signs) that we become aware of how we use opportunities, with will, for good or not. Only on Earth do we experience a physical body, emotions and consequences.

We enter a material sojourn (on Earth), not by chance, but through timing and ideal conditions represented by the Astrological chart and we pick up where we left off. There is a part of our physical body, our very own seed atom, that is the same one we have had from the beginning.

There is no force in the Universe stronger than the force of personal Will. Karma results from Earth life use of Will, thus we are responsible for what is created in our lives, good or bad. What we don't realize is that we attract the experiences we need to us. Our horoscope represents planetary patterns formed by our choices, and indicates tendencies in a given life without reference to will. Positions of the planets in our chart indicate our influence on the Universe. Aspects represent Karma and opportunity. How we interact with others and meet our obligations (Saturn) with correct use of Will determines our progress (or not) in life. We never stand still; either we are moving forward or regressing!

Special Feature: Con't JOURNEY TO ONENESS - THE LONG ROAD HOME

Astrology denotes the close association of Humanity and the Universe and I will endeavor to explain the process of Spiritualization of matter as best I can.

Planets are creative forces experienced within the body as vibration and these correlate with the external forces of the Solar System. Zodiac signs are sounding boards from which planetary vibrations are transmitted to us. Individuals are subject to changes as the Earth passes through the various signs of the Zodiac and Solar Rays imprint the vibratory influence of each sign to life on Earth.

Qualities of Zodiac signs represent principles underlying all physical manifestation;

Astrological	Cardinal	Fixed	Mutable
Spiritual counterpart:	Spirit	Purpose	Idea

Elements of Zodiac Signs represent the basic building blocks of the Universe:

Astrological	Fire	Air	Water	Earth
Spiritual counterpart	Love	Brotherhood	Peace	Service
Scientific counterpart	Nitrogen	Oxygen	Hydrogen	Carbon

Protoplasm, the material point at which all life starts (conception) consists of nitrogen, oxygen, hydrogen and carbon. This is not only the structural unit from which all living bodies start in life but that with which they are subsequently built up.

Because the 3 spiritual principles of cardinal, mutable and fixed underlie all physical manifestation they are present in every atom in the human body. Man is evolving through the Earth plane and thus it's 4 elements - fire, air, water and earth which represent the evolutionary forces of the 12 Zodiac signs.

Each spiritual principle must evolve through each of the 4 elements: $3 \times 4 = 12$

Then the force represented by each of the 12 must evolve through each of the others:

$12 \times 12 = 144$ as a symbol of the entire human evolutionary process. .

Hope I haven't lost everyone! Sufficient to say, in our spiritual journey through the Universe, we must evolve through each Plane of consciousness (planets), and each evolutionary force (zodiac) until perfection is reached in our Solar System and we then become One with the Universal Whole . At this point we have found our way back home finally. We can now stay in our Solar System as Master/Teacher and help others in their journey or we can go on to other Solar Systems.

The Earth is only an atom in the Universe of Worlds. (Edgar Cayce)

President's Message: on the Robert Corre Seminar by Chris McRae

I trust all who went to the Robert Corre seminar enjoyed it. We had a good turn-out, mostly our more experienced core of astrologers but my less experienced students also found it most interesting and inspiring. As promised, you may not agree with all of the 17th Century Morin techniques but I am sure you also found many concepts insightful and useful. Those who were unable to attend missed a great deal. We observed the systematic order of Virgo in a very well organized presentation by someone who is a genuine teacher, who loves to teach, and blames poor astrology on poor organization plus a non-systematic approach to unfolding a chart, starting at the Ascendant.

The lesser use of the 3 outer planets in this system is understandable when we consider those planets weren't even discovered in Morin's time. Uranus was discovered in 1781, Neptune in 1846 and Pluto in 1930 so we would not expect to find them in this system. However, we observed that the late Zoltan Mason who was Robert Corre's teacher, infused them but with a minimal influence. Morin did not know of them, and Zoltan Mason felt we have not had enough time to ingest their influence into consciousness. That would make a most interesting debate with many good points offered for both sides. The discovery of Uranus did correlate with the birth of individualism and self-expression. It marked a time of independence, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness which began through revolutionary action. The discovery of Neptune birthed dreams of the Golden Age and has often been referred to as the beginning of expansion in modern consciousness, particularly during and after the Neptune/Pluto conjunction of the early 1890's.

Further on the issue of limiting outer planetary infusion, one could make a good point that much of the global society still functions on a Mars rulership in Scorpio but I do believe that most of us who are involved in self-awareness and personal growth do resonate to the transformative, healing and evolutionary principles of Pluto having rulership in Scorpio. A good point in fact is the abhorrence of so many people for the war in Iraq and indeed that our planet never seems to be free of wars and people killing each other for one reason or another, often due only to a difference of opinion or greed and manipulation. Also I note in following the current US Democratic leadership race, that many people are turned off by what is being called "negative campaigning" or "personal attacks" rather than sticking to the issues, where as in previous election times it was just referred to as "politics" or "politicking". Yes, I do believe there is much resonance in our society to Pluto in Scorpio rather than Mars in Scorpio. Of course, Horary uses both old and new rulerships because it is so steeped in tradition.

It seemed that Robert was in and out of Edmonton in the blink of an eye, arriving Friday afternoon with barely enough time to get the hand-outs printed and off to dinner. We did find him a delightful dinner companion on Friday evening with much to say and everyone eager to listen and contribute. He left during the wee pre-dawn morning hours of Sunday. It was still snowing, the road was treacherous but I managed to get him to the airport safe and sound. So we jammed in our own personal conversation during the few brief hours in between. He was a very easy house guest fitting right into what I often refer to as my rather Aquarian household.

I do hope all of you enjoyed our weekend with Robert Corre. The question now exists: who do we invite next? With several of you going to UAC and hearing so many great speakers, you will surely offer suggestions on who you would like to see come to Edmonton. Next year we will likely choose someone who would enjoy being part of our June retreat just as Glenn Perry did last year.

Astro Forecast: "Taurus" written by Inge

Taurus: April 20 to May 20

A fixed earth sign of negative polarity ruled by Venus. Key Phrase: 'I have'

The Sun in Taurus strives for spiritual truth by working with the practical aspects of life. Taurus is represented by the bull, slow to anger, but once aroused - watch out! There is no way to stop a Taurus on a mission. Clear the path or you will get hurt. Taureans are fond of the good things of life, and focus their attention on acquiring material possessions. They love their creature comforts. The direct route to their hearts is right through their tummy. This sun sign needs security, both emotional and materialistic. Taureans have a lot of determination, which enables them to succeed by sheer willpower and tenacity. Some say they are stubborn, but actually, they are very patient and are willing to wait for the things they want. Artistic Taurus loves all things beautiful.

Forecast 2008 to 2009

Powerful Pluto, from the optimistic sign of Sagittarius is almost finished running tests on your stress levels. Pluto permanently enters the sign of Capricorn in November 2008. Aren't you glad, that, as a Taurus you had the patience and willpower to see this aspect through to its' logical conclusion. Pluto in Capricorn will trine your Taurus Sun for the next 16 years. You will have plenty of time to learn to use the exclusive power of Pluto.

Nebulous Neptune, from the sign of Aquarius is causing some problems. It is difficult to see things as they really are. You can't quite put your finger on it, but you know something is not right. There is a lot of confusion and uncertainty in your corner of the world. You have a lot of unanswered questions. Look to your friends for ideas and inspiration. You really need to stay focused here.

Intuitive Uranus, the rebellious planet of unexpected surprises, started its' transit through the sign of Pisces in March 2003 and will stay until 2011. This means you have a lot of opportunities coming your way. Uranus will present them to you in various ways, none of them will be logical and all of them will be a surprise. That is the way Uranus operates. Just pay attention - so you don't miss the one you want.

Constructive Saturn moved into the sign of Virgo in September 2007. This aspect is free flowing energy for you to make progress and get a great deal accomplished. Whatever task you undertake will run smoothly to its' desired conclusion, whatever project you start will be successfully completed. Take advantage of this trine aspect and bask in the recognition and rewards you receive for a job well done.

Optimistic Jupiter took up residence in the sign of Capricorn in December 2007, and will stay there for about a year. Jupiter, the planet of expansion, is in Capricorn, the sign of restrictions. Sagittarius ruled by Jupiter is enthusiastic and has a great sense of humor. Capricorn ruled by Saturn is cautious, somber and serious about everything. Jupiter is about freedom and Saturn is about limitations. As a Taurus, this aspect will be very comfortable for you. Taurus is about practicality and common sense. Taurus sets parameters and sticks to them. This Jupiter transit give you the confidence to open doors you may not have thought to knock on before.

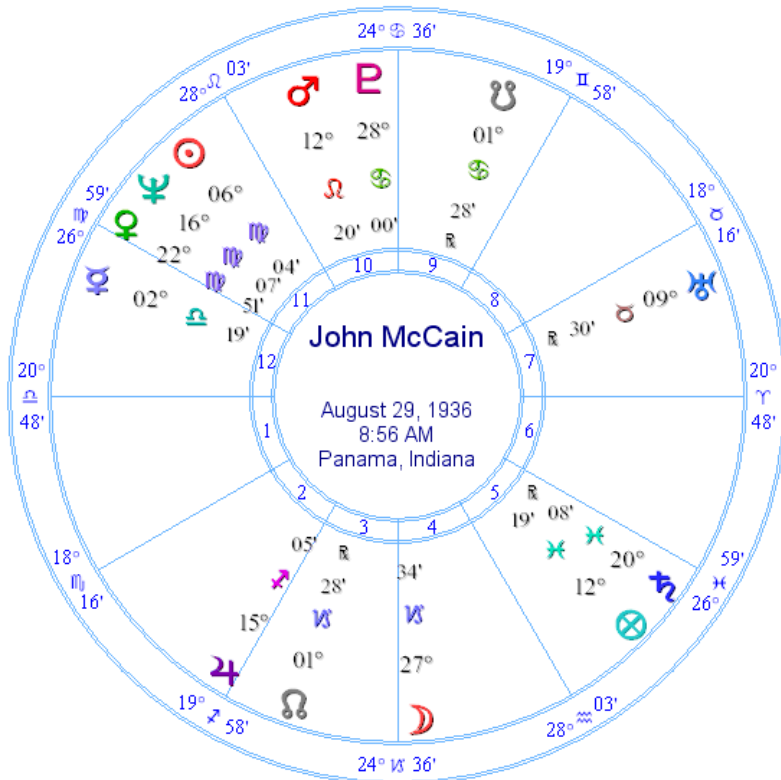

Summary: This year will begin a new chapter in your life. Powerful Pluto, constructive Saturn and lucky Jupiter are all trine your Sun. Uranus, the planet of ideas is sextile your Sun and you have inspirational Neptune square your Sun, just to keep you within the realm of reality. This a year of growth that has measurable results, in both your professional and personal endeavors. What you build this year will stand the test of time.

U. S. Election

written by Helga

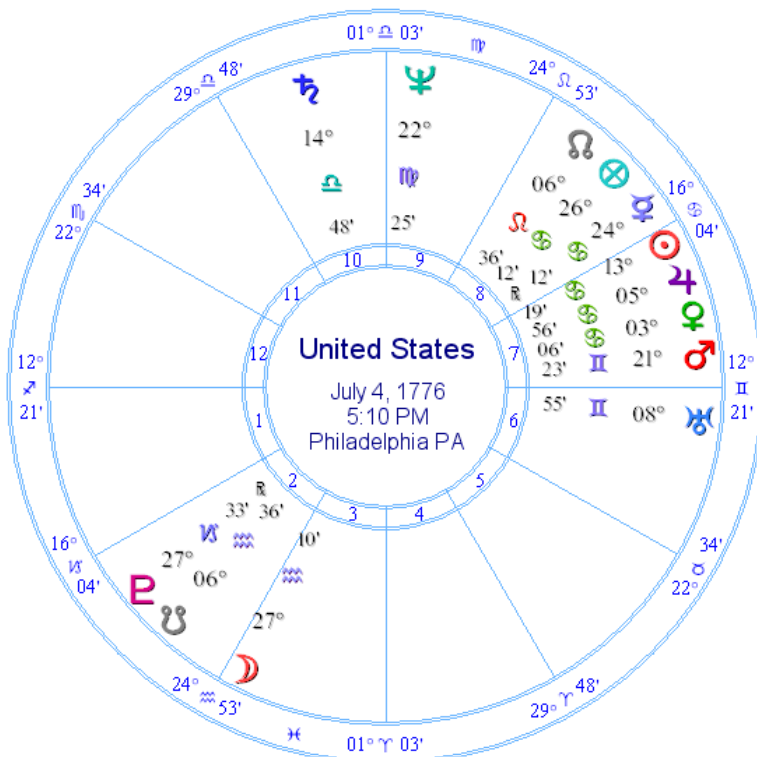

With all the talk about the U.S. election I thought it would be a good idea to take a look at the charts and compare them to the U.S. chart. I found some very interesting points, which I would like to share with you.

In the chart of Senator McCain:

- McCain's Sun is sextile U.S. Jupiter
- McCain's Pluto conjunct U.S. Fortuna, opposition Pluto, semi- sextile Moon.
- McCain's Saturn opposition U.S. Neptune, square Uranus
- McCain's Mars sextile U.S. Saturn, semi-sextile Sun
- McCain's Mercury square U.S. Venus and Jupiter
- McCain's Jupiter quincunx U.S. Sun sextile Saturn
- McCain's Fortuna (misfortune in Pisces) trine U.S. Sun
- McCain's Uranus semi-sextile U.S. Uranus
- McCain's Moon semi-sextile U.S. Moon, opposition Fortuna, conjunct Pluto

These aspects are within 2 degrees

There is no question in my mind as to who is to become the next President. However, Mr. McCain's Pluto is the highest elevated planet in his chart conjunct the M.C. Mr. Richard Nixon had Pluto in the 10th house. It would not surprise me, if Mr. McCain would fall from grace too. There exists a possibility that his friends will backstab him, as the ruler of his Fortuna (misfortune) is Neptune located in the 11th house of friends. At the time of the election his progressed Fortuna 22 Libra is conjunct the Ascendant. The progressed MC is 7 Libra trine the U.S. Uranus. (What a surprise it will be for a number of people). The progressed Ascendant at 16 Sagittarius is conjunct his Jupiter. Transiting Pluto at 1 Capricorn will be conjunct the natal North Node. His progressed Moon will be conjunct U.S. Neptune. His progressed Mars will be trine U.S. Pluto.

Perhaps you will find more aspects, but I believe these should be enough to state that Mr. McCain will be elected.
